

drive up to that little walk; from the little walk into the house.

Q By the front door, you mean, again?

A Yes, sir.

BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Then you went back to bed?

A Yes, sir; she said "There is no use of your staying up; you might as well go on back." And I went back to bed.

Q Had you ever taken any messages or anything from the Hall house to the Mills house recently?

A You mean notes?

Q Notes.

A I have no recollection of that.

Q Did Mr. Hall or Mrs. Hall ever ask you to go over to the Mills house for anything?

A Only one time that comes to my mind was I think it was just before Christmas.

Q Of this previous year?

A The same year; that I was going to take as an errand a package for Mrs. Minnie Clark, just a little Christmas gift and also one for Mrs. Mills.

Q One for Mrs. Clark and one for Mrs. Mills?

A Yes.

Q From whom?